

Wi-Ne-Ma Christian Camp
WAIVER FORM

We want to remind those who registered online that you will need to print the WAIVER below and bring a signed copy. If you have any questions or concerns prior to the start of Camp, please contact us.

WAIVER: The online process is not able to give us a “signed” release needed in case we need to seek medical care for your child. Even though you agreed to this release statement at the time you registered, please print page with the following release statement, sign and date the statement and send with your camper. We will place this in your child’s medical file for use in case medical care is needed. We will also make every effort to contact you in this circumstance.
