

Gary Snavely, Pastor of Hermiston First Christian Church. Gary's mission is to teach the Word of God in inspirational and practical ways that benefit the listener in lasting ways. Gary served as Pastor of First Christian Church in Sparks Nevada two years, University Christian Church in Eugene Oregon for 10 years, Grandview Christian Church in Johnson City Tennessee for three years, and Willamette Christian Church in West Linn for 16 years. He then served as Teacher in Residence at the Tokyo Biblical Church in Tokyo Japan for three years. He is now the pastor at First Christian Church in Hermiston, Oregon. Gary has a BA in Theology from Northwest Christian University in Eugene Oregon, and a MDiv from Emmanuel Christian Seminary in Johnson City Tennessee. He finished the course work for a DMin from Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena California, and he has taken graduate level courses in history at the University of Nevada Reno, and at the University of Oregon in Eugene. Over the years Gary developed a type of preaching he calls Experiential Preaching. The emphasis is on a life changing encounter with the living Word of God. His motto is "to make God real, to see lives changed."

Steve Richardson, Retired Pastor and Professor at Hope International University. Steve grew up in Eugene, Oregon, earning his undergraduate degree from Northwest Christian College and later his Master of Divinity from Emmanuel Christian Seminary. He has served in pastoral positions in Washington, California, Arizona, and Tennessee. Hope International University invited him to teach in the Ministry/Biblical Studies department, where he served for 28 years until retirement in 2016. Steve and his wife, Elaine, have two children, K.C. and Noel, and seven grandchildren. He and Elaine celebrated 50 years of marriage in 2017. "Elaine has been a superb partner in ministry as well as enjoying a distinguished career teaching elementary school for 30 years."
